4. PUBLIC COMMENT

Public comment during our working session offers a key opportunity for community members to engage with the Board of Trustees. This is an open forum where you can discuss any topic, including agenda items. Each speaker will have a five-minute allotment to ensure all voices are heard. The Board values your input as it helps guide our planning and decision-making. Comments will be actively considered for future meeting agendas. We encourage openness and civility in our discussions; personal attacks are not tolerated. Your participation is crucial in addressing community needs.

Mr. Michael Nehez asks what was discussed during the excise tax working session as he is a grower and it is of interest to him.

Bo Makenzie bought property with family and friends and is planning on hosting a festival which he thinks will bring business and money to the town. He is happy to see the direction the town is going to include infrastructure.

Mr. Biggio wants to go on record saying that the board should hold an immediate lection as required by law.
